Dear Brother Finley

we did not find it convenient to start your box of books for four or five days after you left but finally got them off. after you left here I obtained from Schunkler 3 volumes. from Mrs Sherwood 9 volumes all of which are in the box our last quarterly meeting is now over we had a very pleasant meeting Br Garrison was with us though quite lame. I told him that you talked of visiting Lancaster, Rushville and Somerset which he was glad to hear and will assist you if you call on him

Br Garrison is very anxious to see you and wishes if ~~you~~ go to Somerset you would drop him a line and let him know when you will be there that he may be at home.

we are in usual health and happy in the Lord. Yours most affectionately

Rev J. B. Finley
